¹ Issue Age Method: Bases the premium and future increases on the age of the beneficiary when the policy was first issued. (See Page 5 in this packet).

² Attained Age Method: Bases any premium increases on the enrollee's current age at the time of the increase. (See Page 5 in this packet).

³ Community Age Method: Bases the premium and any premium increases on the average age of everyone in the plan (See Page 5 in this packet).

⁴ Bankers Life: not set-up to electronically transfer your Medicare Summary Notice directly to Bankers Life.

⁵ Plan F High Deductible Option: Plan F can also be sold with a $2,000 (in 2010) "High Deductible" option. Call carrier for details.

⁶ Plan M & N: Contact individual companies to find out if they sell these plans.

⁷ AARP Medigap Plans: Currently AARP accepts Medicare beneficiaries Age 65+ at anytime as long as they do NOT have End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD), or a pending hospitalization. Call AARP for details. (This does not apply to Medicare beneficiaries under age 65).
